

GARDEN RESOLUTIONS ZOOM ENCORE

THURSDAY, JAN. 7, 10-11:00 AM

Murray Center
24932 Veterans Way,
Mission Viejo, CA 92692

In Southern California, January is a great time to plan a garden update. Except for warm season vegetables, January through March is a good time to plant so that new plants can establish themselves before the heat of summer arrives. In addition, the shorter days of January allow gardeners to regroup, plan, and organize. We'll talk about outdoor design, composting, vegetable gardens, tools and keeping them sharp to name just a few of the topics we'll cover.

Note: This class will be taught online via ZOOM. Free, Registration required, open until one day before the meeting.
