

ANNUAL JUNETEENTH CELEBRATION

Centennial Regional Park

3000 West Edinger Avenue, Santa Ana

Saturday, June 18th, 11 AM – 6 PM

FREE, OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Juneteenth (also called Jubilee Day, Black Independence Day, and Emancipation Day) commemorates the emancipation of enslaved African Americans. Originating in Galveston, Texas when Union soldiers arrived with word that the Civil War had ended, setting free enslaved Black people, Juneteenth has been celebrated annually on June 19 at various sites around the United State and was recently declared an annual federal holiday.

Presented by Orange County Heritage Council

Celebrate with speakers, vendors, music, food and games
