

Preserving the Season with Honey

DATE Tuesday, February 7, 2023 TIME 3:00 to 5:00 pm or
6:00 to 8:00 PM (2 IDENTICAL SESSIONS)

COST $30

LOCATION South Coast Research & Extension Center
7602 Irvine Blvd., Irvine 92618

Learn about preserving with honey! Join the Master Food Preservers of Orange County to explore the use of honey in canning recipes. We will discuss honey, why and how it differs from sugar, and ways it can be used in home food preservation. Each participant will make-and-take 2 products made with honey: Lemon-Sage Wine Mustard and Cherry Jam. We will also be tasting different kinds of honey.

There will be 2 identical workshops offered. Each class is limited to the first 24 registrants. Register and pay online by February 6, 2020 and bring a printed or digital copy of your confirmation proof-of-payment email to class.

Closed-toe shoes are required. Please bring an apron from home. If you cannot bring an apron, please select the $5 cleaning fee for a loaner apron. All ingredients and kitchen tools will be provided at the class.

Plan to join us at the session which best suits your schedule.
