

GARDENING IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 11, 9-10:30 AM

Hosted by Surf City Gardeners
Community Center
18041 Golden West St, Huntington Beach

Learn how and why Southern California is unique and different, about its geology and gardening history, and what to consider in your garden planning.

Master Gardeners of OC will provide tips and techniques for planting a successful garden using California natives and other drought tolerant plants well suited to our Mediterranean climate and soils.

Free, open to the public

No Registration Required
